CITY CREWS OUT ON POTHOLE BLITZ TODAY

INDIANAPOLIS – City crews are out in full force today on a special pothole blitz attacking the worst potholes around the City. The Department of Public Works (DPW) has 25 crews out today filling potholes. The primary focus is on the thoroughfares and secondary streets. These crews will work from 7am to 5pm at locations in all nine townships in the first blitz of the season.

Residents and commuters are encouraged to let the City know when a pothole is spotted. To report a pothole this weekend, please visit www.indy.gov/RequestIndy.

For media interested in filming at a location, please contact Molly Deuberry, 317.677.6469.
